

The Clinicians

Toine Hoefs is a KWPN Breed judge in Holland. He has bred and trained some of the top stallions in that country. Toine Hoefs and his wife Ingrid started their own breeding barn in Erp, The Netherlands, in 1982 and are most proud of their two own bred licensed stallions: The Oldenburg Ex Libris (by Elan xx x Principaal) and the KWPN registered Juventus (by Dublin x Principaal). Toine has also been a member of the KWPN Stallion Licensing Committee for twelve years and judges breeding shows throughout Europe. Furthermore, he trained young rider Jodie Kelly to a team gold medal at the 1999 North American Young Riders Championships. Toine judged at the 2003 Dressage at Devon breed show and regularly travels to the U.S. for business, clinics and training sessions.

Kathy Connelly is a well-known Grand Prix trainer here in the States. Kathy Connelly was a USET rider at the 1989 World Cup Finals aboard Enterprise. She was co-chef d'equipe of the American team at the 2000 CDIO Hickstead and coached the 2003 Young Riders' silver medal winning team in Australia. Connelly is the trainer of the 1995 North American Young Riders Champion, the 2003 Canadian World Cup Champion and 1999 Pan Am Silver medalist Shannon Dueck. She is a member of the USET-USAE-USDF High Performance Dressage Committee and also trained several FEI horses herself, including Mark Carter's Haydn, Bernd Schopf's Beethoven as well as Enterprise, who she bought as a young horse. Kathy Connelly is based in Harvard, Mass, 7 months of the year, and spends her winters in Wellington, Florida.
