

RMDS Trainers' Symposium Featuring George Williams

April 18-19, 2016
(Monday/Tuesday)

Paragon Equestrian Centre, Berthoud, Colorado

No Dogs

Open only to declared, practicing professionals of any sport discipline who are RMDS members. A closed working environment for trainers to work with other trainers, professional riders and their horses, collaborating and working with George Williams to make solid training decisions for the improvement of both horse and rider.

George Williams is an FEI trainer and competitor, a USDF Instructor Program Honorary Instructor, President of the United States Dressage Federation and USEF Youth Coach. He was named USEF Equestrian of Honor and rode Rocher to Dressage Horse of the Year, USDF Grand Prix and Grand Prix Freestyle Horse of the Year.

The Seminar will run approximately 8:30-5 each day with registration beginning at 8. Box lunches will be provided for all pre-registrants and demonstration riders. We will begin with a lecture on Monday morning and work our way progressively through the training schedule each day.

Participants:

In Advance: $140 Full Event (includes lunch each day) or $80 per day (includes lunch)

At the Door: $170 Full Event (no lunch) or $90 per day (no lunch)

Demonstration Riders:

$210 – includes one ride and lunch per day. Professional riders only. If horse is owned by amateur or junior client, the client may attend only the session for their horse as a silent auditor.
