Permanent Committee Reports:

1. Adult Amateur

Anclaire Spaulding/Michelle Steven

Anclaire & Michelle have decided to focus on the 2018 season since 2017 season is booked. We might have the chance to bring Judy Reynolds (Irish Olympic Team) to Colorado at a pretty decent price. We will also apply for the grant program per our last update.

Anclaire & Michelle are putting together a "survey monkey" to send out the AAs to see what interests them for 1027-2018.

We still want to do an AA Appreciation night at a show with wine & yoga. We are also brainstorming for an additional gift the AAs can contribute to Dressage for the Cure in May.

Any and all suggestions welcome on how we can help make 2017-2018 the best year for RMDS yet!

After a discussion, it was suggested to bring a budget to the July meeting for approval so you can proceed. It was suggested to hold the AA appreciation at the Championship show.

2. Awards

Shannon Lemons

Beth reported that postage is coming in for the mailing of the awards. Beth will be sending out another email to those that have not yet paid.

3. Communications

Beverly Swanson

- Centaurs: Apr, May

Current design implementation refined, would love to use pics from members for cover

June - July Centaurs

I would like to have an article on both the closed and open clinic with Lars Petersen. Also will try to assign Dressage Symposium events to different members. Will send out an e-blast for volunteers to write.

Joan Clay will write up something for the professionals' days and Una will write up the open days.

CHAPTER REPORTS

BIG THANK YOU to all chapters, I think we had every one in May. And all were interesting - it's great to know what everyone is up to!

4. Education

L Continuing Education

2018 session is scheduled for Jan 27.

Melissa Creswick has agreed to teach and USDF can provide videos for judging rather than having a live session. Location TBD but there was a lot of positive feedback on the centrally located hotel this year.

Will investigate possibility of a clinic before and/or after the education day with Melissa.

TD / Show Management training

Discussion was held to continue with the classroom style but give more guidance to the presenter to have more case studies.

Group sit time for L Graduates

Debbie's hotel room has been booked. We currently only have 6 registrants so this is now open outside RMDS to L grads and candidates. Posted on USDF L Grads and Candidates Facebook page. USDF will not publicize, however, unless we seek approval as L CE ($40 fee and application). Not sure this is worth the extra expense. We can also send to any current L program contacts – they are posted on web.

Una Schade made the motion to pay the $40 fee for L CE approval. 2nd by Joan Clay Motion passed with 1 nay and 2 abstentions.

Scribing Clinic

A resounding success with 9 attendees! Income $135, expenses (test copies) $43.20 for a profit of $91.80. Suggestion to have one at a northern area show. The Autumn Hill shows at CSU would be ideal and Simone Windeler said she could conduct/judge. Saw one attendee scribing at the Cure show and another reported she scribed at a schooling show (for MaryJo). This may provide a whole new pool of skilled volunteers for shows!

Respectfully submitted,

Michelle Anderson & MaryJo Hoepner

Una asked for people to man the booth as DSIR. Anclaire could possible help either Saturday or Sunday.

I will not be able to attend tonight's meeting. Out of town guest have arrived for the weekend. I have a few advertisers who have said yes, but have not committed to dollar amounts yet. My efforts continue... Someone mentioned a morning stretch event and I like that idea. I can find donations for coffee and muffins at the stretch, and look for a stretch leader :-). Or, I trained as a personal trainer, so could lead the stretch get togethers myself. Is there a place we would be able to easily hold this at the Horse Park? I'm not familiar with the facilities.

So sorry to miss tonight, but am soldiering on for sponsors.

-Andrea

Chapter Presidents:

1. Arkansas Valley

Beth Hart

AVDA is getting ready for our June 10th schooling show. We are very pleased MaryJo Hoepner will be judging the show again this year! The weekend before the show we will have our "how to prepare and ride in a show" ½ day clinic. It includes dressage test prep and discussion.

1. How to Visualize your Test.
2. Strategies to Pick Up Easy Points.
3. What to do if you make a Mistake.

And Practice Test with your horse or without individualized session. Ride the test of your choice. Or, do live visualization in the dressage arena with specific attention to your issues. Work with you or your horse and walk you through an actual visualization in the arena.

We are having a clinic May 27th with Anna Blake. She will be coming down to Patch Ranch for an all-day clinic. We are very excited to have her back down this way. Many of us have ridden with her before and look forward to the challenge!

A few of us took our horses to Liberty Landing Stables in Pueblo West last weekend. They had an edifying clinic with Jana Steffen, a trainer from Washington State on being supple and softening our horses. It was well attended and everyone had a great lesson.

AVDA next business meeting is in a couple of weeks. We will continue any final preparations for the show and clinic. We continue to work on our education ½ day clinics and hope to have them regularly scheduled throughout the summer.

The RMDS symposium is almost upon us and we are excited to be auditing. A group of us will carpool up to Parker together and we hope to see many of you there!

Feel free to contact me if you are interested in any of our events. Auditors are always welcome!

2. Boulder Valley

Sandra Rosewell

Lookout Ridge Farm hosted BVD's spring Ride-a-Test on April 30. It was a great success with 20 rides! We had many local dressage riders that attended, but also a big group of eventers. It was fun to watch the differences in the riding! Julie Haugen was a trooper as our judge. She diligently judged and coached from 9:00 to 5:00! The riders were across the board very pleased with the event. We had great support staff from BVD (Nicole Donohue, Patti Hallock, Vanessa Chavez, Grace Maddox and Magdalene Canyon). They enable us to run a smooth show! We want to thank Julie Smith in particular for hosting the event and her boarders that helped us make it a success.

3. Colorado Springs

Pat Leech

CSDA is focused this year on providing quality educational programs for our members. Several ideas have been proposed and are being reviewed.

CSDA would like to congratulate Madeline Backus and her family on her top 20 finish at Rolex 2017 in her rookie start on her Colorado bred Trakehner mare. Madeline and her family have been long time CSDA and RMDS members in the past and have supported our sport with completions and clinics held at their facility, Pendragon Stud in Larkspur.

4. Foothills

Kris Cooper

The following events are also detailed on our website, <http://www.cofoothillsdressage.org>.

- Ride-A-Test Clinic on Saturday, June 10, (the day before Foothills' Spring Into Summer dressage show) – with USEF 'r' Judge Julie Haugen at Table Mountain Ranch, Golden.
- Spring Into Summer Show on Sunday, June 11, with USEF 'S' Judge and Foothills member Debbie Riehl-Rodriguez at Table Mountain Ranch, Golden. Check Omnibus and website for prize list for dressage and Western dressage classes and entry information. Both our June and August dressage shows qualify for Western Dressage Association of Colorado high-point awards.
- Last Chance Show on Saturday, Aug. 26, with Judge Julie Haugen 'r' at Table Mountain Ranch. Details are in Omnibus and at our website.

Thanks to our show manager, Linda Gaber, we have tack shop gift certificates for volunteers at our two dressage shows. Thanks to our scholarship chair, Marilou Metcalf, we have an increased annual reimbursement of $100 per member for volunteering at RMDS and chapter events. This reimbursement can be used to attend an equine educational event. It pays to learn!

In addition, our secretary Nicole Riffe conducted a survey of membership, which confirmed that the most popular benefit of volunteering is LEARNING. Thank you, Nicole!

Our next chapter meeting will be Monday, August 7, at Tuscany Tavern in Evergreen. Please like us at <https://www.facebook.com/FoothillsDressage/>

5. Grand Valley

Arlene Rhodes

Grand Valley is gearing up for our own Western Slope Symposium, funded in part by The Dressage Foundation, on June 2-4 with Beth Baumert. Our rides filled with a waitlist in two days and many members are auditing. We are showing her video, How Riders Work, twice during the month of May so riders and auditors can orient themselves ahead of time to her training methods. One of our members, Mary Duke, of Stirrup Cup Farm has provided her arena and also is sponsoring the Friday night meal for riders and auditors. She has graciously offered her arena for the clinic riders to use the Saturday before so they can get used to the arena. Linda Chadwick-Wirth has been doing all the organizing along with Mary Duke. We are so fortunate to have generous and talented volunteers in our club.

Our spring schooling show went well with about 35-40 rides each day. We added a Ride-A-Test option on Saturday as we ended about an hour early. Our judge Jessica Greer "L" did a fantastic job with every exhibitor.

Our second schooling show will be June 10&11 with Sharron Sarchet "L" with distinction.

Entries open later this month for our two day clinic with Debbie Riehl-Rodriguez "S" to be held on July 1&2.

Judi DeVore is our new editor for our monthly newsletter. She has been featuring articles on members and encouraging submissions from our young riders. I have gotten many compliments on the format and content. She is another willing and talented member in our club. All our volunteers help make our club a welcoming community of dressage riders focused on learning and growing along with our horses.

6. High Plains

Kathy Simard

High Plains Dressage – RMDS report May 2017 RMDS meeting

Submitted by Kathy Simard – HPD President

Our 2017 Youth Clinic was such a success that Julie Burt and Kathy Simard are doing it again on May 13th for the Adult Amateurs! Due to the loss of the Andreas Hausberger Clinic combined with the wonderful events to be held at the Horse Park, the board decided to do a clinic for our adult amateurs. This clinic will be full a day full of information and camaraderie along with a BBQ at Julie Burt's farm in Parker. We will let you know how it goes at our next meeting. Currently there is only one rider slot left and lots of room for more auditors.

7. Northern Colorado

Didi DeKrey

April is a busy month for us! We have our Spring Schooling show early in the month. Held at Tomora Training Center in Greeley, we look forward to a good turnout – horse hair and blossoming plants will be in the air! Since the show is WDACO qualified, we have a strong Western Dressage contingent competing.

The April meeting, on Wednesday the 12th will feature Instructor Joan Clay presenting

The Dressage Rules and Tests Aren't Just for Showing! (WHO KNEW?)

How to utilize the USEF dressage tests and rulebook to inform and guide your training and riding.

We will use a collaborative, hands-on approach to answer the following questions.

- 1) What information is provided on the USEF dressage tests?
- 2) How do the dressage tests relate to the dressage training scale?

3) How can I use the information in the dressage tests and rules to guide my training and riding?

4) What is the value of practicing the tests if I'm not interested in showing?

Our May meeting is traditionally the last one before "Summer Break" and is a time for us to gather socially. A quick business meeting and discussion of our upcoming Fall Riding Clinic series is on the agenda.

We start back up meetings in September – see you then!

8. On The Bit

Ginka Kubelka

Busy times at On the Bit! We had our community tack and clothing swap on April 22nd at the Spur Ridge Equestrian Center. Quite a few people stopped by to look, chat, and buy or sell horse related items.

Last Saturday was our Kentucky Derby Party. Over 90 people, the perfect location with beautiful views of the Laramie Range and lots of TVs to watch the races, delicious food and, of course, Mint Juleps made this big event a great success for our club. Check out the June e-Centaur for more details!

Our next events are of educational nature: we will have a movie night on May 18th at Stephanie's house, watching the On the Levels DVD in order to improve our performance in the show ring. On June 7th, Irina Weese will tell us everything we need to know about colic at Spur Ridge Equestrian Center.

Our schooling show will be held on July 22nd at Spur Ridge Equestrian Center. Julie Haugen, who will be the judge at our schooling show, will also be available for a clinic the day after the show. The facility has been improved since last year, so we will have an outdoor arena for warm-up and an indoor for the tests. Stabling will be available upon request.

If you are interested in any of these events, check out our website, www.onthebitdressage.com, contact us through info@onthebitdressage.com or Facebook, or come to one of our meetings every first Tuesday of the month at 7 pm!
